Preliminary Nights Points:

150 points to win, down by 4 to second, down by 2 for the rest of the positions.

Feature to LCS would continue in the sequence. LCS to C-main to D-main would continue with the sequence.

1-150

etc.

Tie breakers:

1-Highest feature finisher of the 2 preliminary nights.

2-Most cars passed from the 2 preliminary nights.

3-Highest average qualifying position from both preliminary nights.

4-Highest Friday feature finish.

Unlimited WoO Platinum Team Provisionals are permitted for all three nights of racing. However, preliminary nights (Thursday/Friday), provisional starters will NOT accumulate A-main Qualifying points for Saturday's final. For example: "Racer X" finishes 5th in the C-main on Thursday, but is eligible for a World of Outlaws provisional. Racer X will earn WoO Championship Points and Purse money (minus the "start money") for the A-Main but will only earn C-Main EVENT QUALIFYING POINTS for the night. Provisional starters will be removed from the A-Main finishing order for purposes of EVENT QUALIFYING POINT tallies. Standard 2024 World of Outlaws provisional policy applies for Saturday's finale.

All 3 nights of racing will be pointed for 2024 WoO Championship Points.

The point system, lineups and formats are all subject to change due to car counts, inclement weather or/and any unforeseen circumstance at the descretion of WoO Officials.
